

European Dimensions of Popular Print for Children

Milan 1-2 March 2018, Università degli Studi, Dipartimento di Studi storici

Thursday 1 March 2018, Aula seminari, Dipartimento di Studi storici

- 14:00 Lodovica Braidà, opening address
- 14:15 Matthew Grenby and Elisa Marazzi
- Introduction to EDPOP
 - Workshop aims: Towards a general account of popular children's literature in Europe
 - Summary of survey results
- 15:00 Case studies I: short, informal presentations by participants (15 minutes each)
- 16:45 Break
- 17:00 Case studies II: short, informal presentations by participants (15 minutes each)
- 18:30 End of day 1

Friday 2 March 2018, Sala Edizioni pregiate, Dipartimento di Studi storici

- 9:00 Collaborative session on transnational children's cultures in the early modern period:
- Opportunities and challenges
 - Next steps
- 10:30 Break
- 11:00 Collaborative session on preparations for the EDPOP closing conference in Utrecht
- 12:30 Matthew Grenby and Elisa Marazzi
- Closing remarks
- 13:00 End of day 2 and close

Workshop organised on behalf of EDPOP (European Dimensions of Popular Print Culture, coord. Jeroen Salman, University of Utrecht) by Elisa Marazzi (Università degli Studi di Milano, Italy) and Matthew Grenby (Newcastle University, UK).